FREAK'S MUSIC SHOW

BAND

"He barely held in one hand and yet he wriggled and wailed much louder than any other new born." (1838)

These are the first moments of the one who would one day become the General Tom Pouce.

GENERAL TOM POUCE, it's a world where monstrosity, strangeness and rock'n'roll rule!

This musical show will take you into an odd world, lead by four show folks. Freaks, Nosferatu, Elephant Man, Gwynplaine, so much cinema works dressed with touches of klezmer, rock, tzigane and metal music...a true melting pot of genres...

A careful working of lights and videos completes this alternatively disturbing, clownish and dream like atmosphere.
